	ALL VOTERS	GOP	DEM	IND
1. Would you be more or less likely to require more thoughtful effort to change the Missouri Constitution if you knew it could make the process more secure?
More Likely	50%	60%	43%	44%
Less Likely	22%	23%	19%	23%
Unsure	28%	17%	38%	33%
2. Would you be more or less likely to require more thoughtful effort to change the Missouri Constitution if you knew that it would make it easier for voters to be involved in the democratic process while making it more difficult for cheaters?
More Likely	69%	76%	64%	65%
Less Likely	16%	20%	15%	12%
Unsure	15%	5%	21%	23%
3. Would you be more or less likely to require more thoughtful effort to change the Missouri Constitution if you knew that out-of-state special interest groups often sneak constitutional changes on the ballot when voter turnout is very low?
More Likely	51%	55%	45%	54%
Less Likely	26%	32%	24%	19%
Unsure	23%	13%	31%	27%
4. Currently, Missouri requires that petitions proposing a constitutional change only gather signatures from six of the state's eight congressional districts. Would you support or oppose expanding this requirement to include every congressional district, ensuring that the entire state is represented?
Support	69%	81%	60%	63%
Oppose	15%	12%	19%	15%
Unsure	15%	7%	20%	22%

5. Do you think it would be better to require at least 60 percent, 66 percent, or a full two-thirds of the state legislature to approve a proposed constitutional change before it is placed on the ballot?
60% Majority or higher	66%	72%	60%	65%
66% Majority or higher	45%	51%	39%	41%
Full two-thirds	16%	19%	9%	20%

6. If Missourians want to have a state constitutional change placed on a statewide ballot, eight percent of voters who participated in the most recent election for governor must sign a petition. Should this number be left at eight percent or increased to 10, 12, or 15 percent?
10% or higher	57%	67%	49%	54%
12% or higher	35%	45%	28%	30%
15% requirement	19%	31%	7%	16%

7. Missouri only requires a simple majority of voters to approve a change to the state constitution before it becomes law. Would you support or oppose raising the threshold for approving changes to the constitution to two-thirds of voters?
Support	51%	54%	49%	48%
Oppose	24%	19%	30%	25%
Unsure	25%	26%	21%	27%

8. Based on what you have heard in this survey about out-of-state special interest groups' ability to change the Missouri Constitution, do you think these groups have too much power, just the right amount of power, or not enough power?
Too Much	71%	81%	58%	71%
Right Amount	11%	4%	20%	11%
Not Enough	8%	8%	10%	5%
Unsure	10%	7%	12%	12%

9. As a reminder, there have been more than 30 attempts to change the Missouri Constitution over the last 10 years. Do you think that is too many, too few or, or about the right amount of times to try to change the state constitution?
Too Many	56%	65%	50%	52%
Too Few	10%	6%	14%	9%
Right Amount	16%	8%	20%	21%
Unsure	18%	20%	16%	17%

DEMOGRAPHICS

Results for this poll are based on automated telephone interviews conducted among a statewide sample of 506 likely Missouri voters. Data for this survey research was collected by Cor Services, Inc. The surveys were conducted March 2-4, 2021.

The margin of sampling error is plus or minus 4.36 percentage points. The margin of sampling error may be higher for certain subgroups. Results presented may not always appear to total 100 percent due to rounding.

Data was sampled using weighted demographic information from state election authorities. Demographic information for actual voters in past elections were used to construct sample target weights.

Opportunity Solutions Project paid for all costs associated with this survey.
